To whom it may concern,

I personally feel that the settlement that you are making with Microsoft Corp. is severely lacking. I am a long time computer professional and have been appalled by the utter disregard for the law that Microsoft has taken when attacking it's competitors.

I understand that many believe that we should get this behind us, that we should hope that by letting Microsoft go this time we can stimulate growth. However this would be a mistake. We cannot let a tyrant off the hook because it benefits us in the short run.

Please reconsider the settlement and go after tougher restrictions on Microsoft's future actions.

Thank you,
